Dear Mr. Weisberg:

The "Books Today" column has been changed to "New Books," or if spread over two columns to "A Listing of Recently Issued Books," with no pretense of being complete. Moreover, it is often cut to provide needed space for more important stories - such as the long and excellent one you mention on "Photographic Whitewash." As for booksellers, they properly get their ordering information from Publishers' Weekly and the other trade journals.

Sincerely,
Eliot Fremont-Smith
